Mrs. Letha Miller was a business visitor in Los Angeles Friday.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodington of Arlington avenue Wednesday were George R. Smith and son Donald, of Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harding of Santa Paula were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Double of Arlington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brissinger have sold their home on Arlington avenue to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Murphy. The Brissingers will erect a new home on Anapola avenue, lot 58, block 17.

After three years' residence in Torrance, Mrs. Mary Juen and children will return to their old home—Detroit, Mich. Mrs. Juen's mother, Mrs. Mary Crow, who has been visiting in California for several weeks, will accompany them.

Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker of 2007 Andro avenue, is improving rapidly from a recent serious attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Edna McCann of Taft spent a few days of this week with Mrs. James Brissinger.

Through unavoidable delays in installing the fixtures, and other work, Judson G. R. Smith was unable to open his jewelry store on Wednesday last, as advertised. However, he expects to open informally on the coming Saturday.

Torrance Ladies Attend P. T. A. At Redondo School

Mrs. Letha Miller and Mrs. H. F. Beckwith attended the P. T. A. meeting at Central school, Redondo, Monday, Oct. 22. Mrs. Chas. M. Kite of Los Angeles gave a talk on the importance of legislation for women and children. Mr. Monroe, the Santa Monica scoutmaster, gave a talk. Mr. Spikes presented troop 4 of Redondo, which is sponsored by the P. T. A. The scouts went through some of their regular work and played a very instructive and amusing little game they call "Swat 'Em".

Miss Hougler talked on Campfire work. Campfire Girls were presented. Some of the school children gave a musical program.

SCHOOL NOTES

Harry Phillips has been promoted to high school on account of the general excellence of his work.

Miss Jones has five pupils in her section of the eighth grade who have never been tardy to school nor classes in their lives. Some record!

Walter Eason, one of the most popular boys in the school, is home again after an extended trip through the north.

Paul Denny of BS was seriously injured Tuesday when struck by an auto. Paul was riding a bicycle when run down.

The seniors have entered the state spelling contest that, it is announced by Will C. Woods, will be conducted by radio from Sacramento some time in November. Twenty minutes each day is devoted to the spelling lesson. The date on which the words will be broadcasted will be announced later. Bill Sykes, a local electrician, has offered the use of his receiving outfit to the school.

Mrs. I. W. Barnett is ill with a throat affection.

There are 15 pupils in shorthand, 10 in typewriting, and 10 in bookkeeping who are attending night school. These subjects are being made very interesting, and more pupils will be welcomed.

ENJOY CARD PARTY

Mrs. Jack Murray was hostess last Monday evening at Catholic hall to a large crowd who passed a pleasant evening at cards. The awards were presented to Mrs. Harry McManus, Miss Rose Ortman, Mrs. George Watson, Joe Collison, Charles Vonderahe, and A. W. Mueller, John Lungregren was given the door prize.

Mrs. Dominic McNeal will be hostess next Monday evening.

MISS LOVELL WEDS

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Anthony's church, Gardena, Rev. Father Bradley officiating, when Miss Annabell, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lovell, 2012 Andro avenue, Torrance, was united in marriage to Roma G. Daries of Santa Paula.

After a dainty wedding breakfast the happy couple left on a short wedding trip through the mountains, and upon their return will take up their residence in Santa Paula, where Mr. Daries is very popular, being a valued employe of the Oakridge Oil company.
